(“Bupa Arabia”, “the Company”)
APPENDIX F : RISK MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE (RMC)
CHARTER

1. Constitution, Principal Role and Term

Constitution – This Charter was first approved by the Board of Directors on 12th October 2016, and the public shareholders first approved it on 20th December 2016. This latest version, enhancing alignment with the latest regulatory corporate governance regulations, was approved by the Board during 2019, subject to regulatory approval where applicable, and subject to the public shareholders’ approval, where applicable, on 12 November 2019.

Principal Role – The principal role of the Risk Management Committee (“RMC” or “the Committee”) is to assist the Board in its risk management, cyber security, business continuity management, and corporate governance strategies and the oversight of risk, cyber security, business continuity management, and corporate governance across Bupa Arabia. This includes overseeing the current risk, cyber security, business continuity management, and governance exposures and the risk strategy, cyber security strategy, business continuity management strategy, and the corporate governance strategy, and including the development of the overall risk appetite and tolerance, the monitoring of the effectiveness of the corporate governance and risk management frameworks including governance and risk policies, process and controls, and the promotion of a governance, risk, cyber security and business continuity management aware culture throughout Bupa Arabia.

The Committee is committed also to excellence in corporate governance, cyber security, and risk management and shall make a difference to Bupa Arabia’s business by:

- Being sighted on governance, cyber security, business continuity management, and risk and engaging corporate governance, cyber security, business continuity management and risk management to deliver sustainable performance;
- Owning the whole of the oversight of Bupa Arabia’s corporate governance, cyber security, business continuity management and risk profile and acting on governance, cyber security, business continuity management and risk themes holistically;
- Recognizing emerging risks and proposing risk appetite changes to the Board, as needed; and
- Defining and owning Bupa Arabia’s corporate governance, cyber security, business continuity management and risk culture and the mechanisms for implementing the same.

Term – the term of this Committee shall run concurrent with the Board term, and such term shall be governed by the Company’s Articles, which cannot exceed the three years maximum specified within the Company Law, as shall be approved by the Board, Regulators and thereafter the public shareholders.

Each member shall hold office as a Committee member for a period of up to three years, which may be extended for further periods of up to three years, after the Board is re-constituted for each term, provided the Chairman remains non-executive, and subject to the approval of the Board, and the regulator(s), as required and applicable.

2. Membership, Chairman and Secretary

Composition and Chairman – The Committee is to comprise of no less than three (3) and no more than five (5) members, as per the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (NRC) recommendation approval, after Board and regulatory approval where applicable, in accordance with the relevant Saudi regulations.

The Board, after its appointment by the General Assembly, shall, after accounting for the NRC recommendation, approve the appointment of the Committee members, including the selection of the Chairman from amongst the members, for the new three (3) year term, subject to thereafter obtaining the regulatory required approvals.

The Chairman of the Committee shall be a non-executive director. The Chairman of the Board shall not be a member of the Committee.

In the absence of the Chairman of the Committee, the members present at any meeting of the Committee shall elect one of their number to Chair the meeting.

Members of the Committee shall always be fully informed of the course of business and act in good faith; with due diligence; in compliance with the applicable laws and regulations; and in the best interest of the Company's shareholders, policyholders, and other Stakeholders.

Members of the Committee shall perform their duties free from any external influence, whether from within or outside the Company. Committee members shall not allow their own personal interest, or the interest of the parties they represent, to come before, or in conflict with, that of the Company, its shareholders, or any other Stakeholders.

The Board, after obtaining the regulators' written non-objection, may dismiss a Committee member if she or he ceases to satisfy the membership terms or violates the provisions of the respective rules and regulations.

A Committee member has the right to resign, after providing the resignation request to the Board with at least one month notice before the resignation becomes effective.

The Company shall notify the regulators in writing of the resignation of a Committee Member, and the reasons thereof, and provide the regulators with a copy of the resignation in due course, as required.

In the case of a Committee vacancy during the term, the Board, after N&RC recommendation, and after obtaining the regulators' written non-objection where applicable, shall appoint another Committee member, preferably within a month of the vacancy date, to fill the vacant Committee position, and the new member shall complete his or her predecessor's term.

Knowledge – Each member shall have appropriate corporate governance, financial and risk management knowledge. All members are required to keep up-to-date on regulatory, corporate governance, risk and compliance issues and, where appropriate, shall receive induction and ongoing professional development to ensure this.

Confidentiality – Board/Committee members must sign a Confidentiality Agreement with the Company and at all times maintain the strictest confidentiality of all the matters discussed through, or associated with, the Board/Committee’s activities, whether the Board/Committee member has ceased to be an active or current Board/Committee member or not.

Disclosure of Interests – Each member of the Committee shall disclose to the Committee:

- a) Any personal financial interest in any matter including, but without limitation to, business and family interests, to be decided by the Committee; and
- b) Any potential conflict of interest arising from a cross-directorship.

Any such member shall abstain from voting on resolutions of the Committee in relation to which such interest exists and from participating in the discussions concerning such resolutions unless such conflict has previously been disclosed to, and authorized by the Board.

Membership Review – The Board shall review the membership of the Committee from time to time and approve any changes to the Committee membership, based on the recommendation approval of the Nomination & Remuneration Committee (NRC).

Secretary – The Secretary of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the NRC. The Secretary shall handle the Committee’s administrative tasks, schedule the Committee’s meetings in coordination with its Chairman, prepare the meeting minutes and ensure that all Committee members who attended, and the Committee Secretary, sign the minutes.

Committee Members Compensation – All Board, and Board Committee, members are entitled to annual compensation if the eligibility requirements have been fulfilled by the member. The compensation shall be as per the Board and Board Committees’ Member Remuneration Policies, as approved by the General Assembly, within the parameters allowed by the law and regulations.

3. Meetings

Frequency – Meetings shall not be held less than three (3) times a year and should preferably correspond with the Company’s financial reporting cycle. The Secretary shall convene a meeting on receipt of a request by one (1) of the Committee members, the Board or by a related external party.

Quorum – The quorum of any meeting shall be valid if it comprises a minimum of either a) the majority of its members, where the Committee membership size is an odd number, or b) half the members, where the membership size is an even number, throughout the meeting. A member may participate by face-to-face meetings between the members, and/or by teleconference or videoconference, and be counted in the quorum and considered to have attended the meeting.

Attendance – Only Committee members, and the Committee Secretary, are entitled to attend the Committee meetings but the Committee shall have the discretion to invite any other person(s) to attend all or part of any Committee meeting, which it considers appropriate.

In the absence of the Chairman, the attending Committee members shall choose a temporary Chairman, for the Committee meeting, from amongst the attending Committee members.

For the business continuity management sessions the Committee will ensure that the members of the management in attendance are those as specified by the SAMA Business Continuity Management Framework V 1.0.

Voting – The Committee’s decisions are issued by the majority of the members and in case of equal votes; the vote of the Committee’s Chairman shall give preponderance, provided that the Committee meeting minutes note the view of the other member(s).

All members shall have the same proportionate control and influence over the decisions of the Committee.

4. Proceedings

Notice – Notice of each meeting confirming the date, time and venue shall be circulated by the Secretary, or his/her designated representative, to all members of the Committee and to other attendees (if appropriate) as far in advance as possible (within five (5) days).

Agenda – The Committee Secretary, or his/her designated representative, shall circulate the agenda and supporting documentation to the members a reasonable period in advance of each meeting, within five (5) days.

Supporting Papers – The Committee Secretary shall give advance notices, send meeting agendas with any relevant materials to the members and ensure their delivery, a reasonable period in advance of each meeting, preferably within five (5) days prior to the meeting.

Duration – Sufficient time should be allowed to enable the Committee to undertake as full a discussion as may be required.

Minutes – Minutes of the meetings shall be recorded, signed by all the Committee members who attended, and the Committee Secretary, and entered into an official register.

Minutes of the Committee meetings shall indicate the meeting’s attendance, topics discussed, major deliberations, voting process, objections and abstentions from voting (with reasons if any), decisions taken, and reservations. All records and documents reviewed during the meeting and/or referred to in the minutes shall be attached / referred to in the minutes.

Minutes of the meetings shall be distributed to the parties concerned within a reasonable period, preferably within two (2) weeks. The person or entity responsible for implementing the resolutions taken shall be determined.

The Committee Secretary shall ensure to provide the Board a copy of the authorized meeting minutes to carefully review them, along with related recommendations.

5. Authorities

Resources and Support: The Committee shall be provided with sufficient resources to undertake its duties. The Committee shall have access to the services of the Committee Secretary and the Chief Risk Officer on
